About This Course

Nurture your caring side with our nationally recognised qualifications.

If you want to develop and shape the next generation in a fun and rewarding job, then a career in education and childcare could be the perfect path for you.

With our industry-approved qualifications you will teach, support and develop children as they progress through the stages of early childhood.

On our courses you will learn through a combination of work placements and classroom sessions, to ensure that you gain the hands-on experience needed in the industry. Working with a range of employers such as childminders, infant schools, specialist schools, children's hospitals and day nurseries.

Whilst you study with us, you will learn key skills including communication with children and adults, safeguarding, health and safety, childhood illnesses, play and learning.

You will also take part in practical activities such as making story sacks, cooking and healthy eating for children, painting and displays. You will also learn how to change a nappy and bathe a baby safely, also having the chance to hear from industry experts in guest sessions. You will learn more about the variety of careers and settings available in education and childcare.

What Will I Study?

Key Aspects:

Child development, play and learning, safeguarding, inclusive strategies, child health and nutrition, physical activity for children, observation and assessment.

Assessments include:
